34th Sunday - Christ the King - November 24, 2019

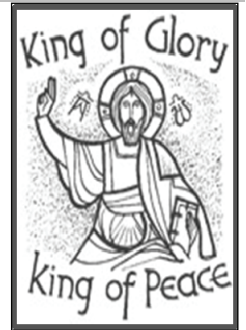

"Jesus, remember me when you come into your Kingdom." Can you lead others to make this request of our Lord and King? Give your life to Jesus and others are sure to hear, "Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise." If you think God is calling you to be a priest, religious or deacon, contact Rev. Fr. Chris Lemieux at 416-968-0997 or on vocations@archtoronto.org or call Rev. Fr. Dominic Borg, OCD at 416-757-2806 or email olfatima@rogers.com for information.

Arise, soldiers of Christ! Throw away the works of darkness and put on the armour of light.-St. Cecilia

34th SUNDAY- CHRIST THE KING - C

Our king was counted among criminals and was crucified! He refused to save himself, nor did he remove his fellow sufferers from their crosses of pain. By embracing human powerlessness, Jesus saved all who acknowledged him as Lord. Like the good thief, we who now share in Jesus' suffering will also share his glory. But do we disciples willingly accept for the Church that role which Jesus chose for himself? Or do we want the Church to have the world's power and prestige? Such a triumphant community has nothing in common with its crucified Lord. Descendant of king David who we meet in today's first reading, Christ is the shepherd-king who leads his people in truth not in triumph. The Colossians hymn tells us that Jesus, first in creation, is first in redemption through his reconciling death. Is reconciliation our priority as we follow Christ our King? What God plans for Christ's disciples far surpasses worldly prestige, just as the title given Christ in mockery cannot describe his present glory.

The native Amazonian peoples have probably never been so threatened on their own lands as they are now."- Pope Francis, Peru, January 2018.

This is true for Indigenous peoples, but also for traditional communities of the Amazon. Here are two communities in Brazil under threat: •The way of life of Machadinho d'Oeste's seringueiros (artisanal rubber tappers) is being destroyed by industrial logging. • The Mura Indigenous people of Manaus were not consulted before a phosphate mining company began operations on their lands.
