Prophets live a hard life. If they struggle with their vocation, it is because of its demands. Speaking God’s word can make us unpopular; not to speak it gives us responsibility for our neighbor’s fate. The first reading assumes that we are linked by unbreakable bonds as members of the human family. In the gospel, Jesus calls on the individual Christian, and then the community, to win back the person who has erred. The entire community shares the responsibility of witnessing to the gospel, and it is the disciples together who must decide when a member is to be excluded from their communion. Yet this is not to be done without heartfelt prayer for the sinner’s repentance – a prayer for which Jesus promises an answer. He is in our midst when we gather in his name. The second reading presents the attitude which must govern the Church’s decisions regarding its members. Each of us has a responsibility toward the other members of the Church, and toward all God’s children, to keep the commandments. Love of our neighbor is the key and the answer to all God’s commands. It is much easier to win over a wrongdoer to repentance if we seek out that person in love.

LIVING THE GOSPEL BY SHARING OUR BLESSINGS

With churches closed at the start of the 2020 ShareLife Campaign, our ShareLife Sunday collections were delayed. In the meantime, the challenges faced by the people helped by ShareLife-funded agencies have only increased. "The needs of our brothers and sisters in Christ are greater than ever before," says Cardinal Thomas Collins. "In order for ShareLife agencies to continue their vital work, it is crucial we meet our parish campaign goal of $13.8 million. Our goal can be met, but only with your help."

September 13 is ShareLife Sunday.
Please give generously.

A Prayer for Children

God, Our Father,
 we pray that through the intercession of Saint Nicholas
 You will protect all children.
 Keep them safe from harm and help them grow in grace and be pleasing in Your sight.
 Give them strength
 to keep their Faith in You;
 and to keep alive their joy
 in Your creation.
 Through Jesus Christ
 Our Lord. Amen
