28th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – A

Wedding banquets are joyful occasions. The feast described in today's gospel symbolizes the salvation offered by the Church. A king, whom we associate with God, has issued invitations to the wedding of his son. But the guests do not come. A second time he cries joyfully, "Come!" They refuse, and kill his servants. In what follows we see an illusion to the destruction of Jerusalem: rejecting the Good News has terrible consequences. Jesus told this parable to the 'pious' who were refusing God's invitation. To take their places, the little people, the marginal ones of society, are invited; they fill the banquet hall. The longer reading reminds us that it is not enough to take part in the Eucharistic banquet; we must act like God's wedding guests. Isaiah had prophesied that one day all peoples would be invited to partake of God's joy. The realization that God fills our needs completely, expressed in the psalm, moves St. Paul to glorify God both in poverty and in plenty. So should we.

Spiritual Blessings in Christ

Let us give thanks to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! For in our union with Christ he has blessing in the heavenly world. Even before the world was made God had already chosen us to be his through our union with Christ, so that we would be holy and without fault before him.

Mass Attendance Survey 2020

This survey, requested by our Archbishop Cardinal Thomas Collins, is intended to provide an accurate profile of 'Mass Attendance' in our archdiocese. It will be done during all the weekend Masses and over two weekends – October 17/18 and 24/25 – and it will involve a number of ushers and volunteers doing a 'head count' in every section of the church at the start of the homily. Thank you for your co-operation and understanding in this exercise!

Please pray for the newly baptized in Christ:

✠ Daniel Joseph Naval-Padilla, Siena Aria
Apostoli, Jacob Aiden Casido,
& Lana Olivia Lang

For in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith. Galatians 3:26
