30th Sunday in Ordinary Time - October 24, 2021

The blind beggar Bartimaeus would not listen to the many people scolding him to be quiet, but shouted all the louder in prayer "Son of David, have mercy on me!" Only then did Jesus call him over and answered his need. Bartimaeus becomes a powerful example of how persistent we must be in prayer when we are asking God to show us His Will for our lives. And then, ask Him for the grace to accept it. If you feel God is offering you the grace of a Church vocation, call Rev. Fr. Matthew McCarthy, Vocation Director, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997; email vocations@archtoronto.org or call Rev. Fr. Mark Robson at 416-757-2806 or at olfatimasc@archtoronto.org for more information.

Daylight Saving Time ends on Sunday, November 7, 2021

Remember to get new batteries for your clocks, while putting clocks back by 1 hour on Saturday/Sunday night.

30 SUN IN ORDINARY TIME - B

To believe is to see and to follow Jesus. Jesus is making the last journey of his life; he leaves Jericho for Jerusalem, where he will be acclaimed as Messiah before being put to death. A blind beggar named Bartimaeus is the first to recognize the Messiah.

[The person who is without sight sees what is most important, while those who would silence him are the truly blind]. The man's persistence wins Jesus' attention, and Christ gives him the sight which is the outward sign of faith. This beggar, one who asks, does what every person of faith must do; follow the Lord. He sets off toward Jerusalem where in turn the crowd will recognize their Messiah. The first reading invites us to rejoice in our salvation, for which God is exuberantly joyful; so should we be. God will lead back from exile the remnant of the faithful, especially the weakest. God, who loves us like a father, will help us on our journey. Hebrews tells us that Christ's priesthood comes directly from God. He is our high priest who will lead all peoples home.

A second collection for the WORLD MISSIONS will be done this weekend. Please use envelopes from your box of donation envelopes ... or the ones available at all church entrances. This is a worldwide collection for the missionary Church and it is our opportunity to assist at-need Catholic communities around the global. Our offerings are combined with those of other Catholics around the world and distributed to missions and dioceses. We are called to share from our abundance with those who are less fortunate and lack the basic essentials to know, love and praise God. Thank you for your support of this important work. Pray for the Missions and help generously. Also visit www.missionsocieties.ca.
