Truly Living the Holy Mass

This Sunday we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. As stewards, the Holy Eucharist should be the very foundation that the rest of our lives are built upon. Yet how often do we fail to view the Holy Mass as the highlight of our week? Let us take a moment to reflect on how the Mass is so pivotal in our lives of stewardship.

While the high point of the entire Mass is the consecration, where the lowly bread and wine become the very body, blood, soul and divinity of Christ, there are still other important moments that lead up to this climax. One such often overlooked moment is the time of Offertory. The Offertory is where we offer our gifts, the bread and wine, but also our time and talents, and essentially, our very selves, in order to be miraculously transformed by God. We may think that we cannot offer God anything spectacular, yet this is why the Offertory is such a powerful moment. The same way that God can transform simple bread into His very body, so too can he turn our small efforts of charity and stewardship into great graces for the Kingdom. We see this in the Gospel as the disciples offered Jesus just five loaves and two fish. However, it is through this offering that Jesus was able to miraculously feed thousands of people. The next time we attend Mass let us intentionally call to mind all of the time and talents we shared with others the previous week and those we anticipate sharing in the upcoming week. God will begin to transform these works into great miracles for the sake of the Gospel.

Summary

One important moment in Mass is the Offertory because this is where we offer our gifts, the bread and wine, but also our time and talents, and essentially, our very selves, in order to be miraculously transformed by God. We may think that we cannot offer God anything spectacular, yet this is why the Offertory is such a powerful moment. The same way that God can transform simple bread into His very body, so too can he turn our small efforts of charity and stewardship into great graces for the Kingdom.

ShareLife agencies need your support now, more than ever

One the agencies you support through ShareLife is Catholic Crosscultural Services.

The agency appreciates your help and recently wrote:

"The pandemic has affected the newcomer and refugee communities we serve greatly and brought on multiple challenges to their access to much needed culturally sensitive services. CCS was able to ensure uninterrupted access to services, information, and support for women, mental health and settlement services to those ineligible for any other services due to their immigration status." For some agencies, ShareLife is the sole funder of their programs. Thanks to your support, no one is ever turned away due to inability to pay. Our goal this year is [$34,000.00].

If you have not yet donated and wish to, you can do so online on the parish website or at Sharelife.org.

Please give generously.

Attention Parishioners!

Due to the gradual reopening of the province and the lifting of most COVID-19 restrictions in places of worship, the Archdiocese has decided to reinstate the Sunday obligation and urges those who are able to return to the practice of attending Mass in-person once again. We ask that you kindly remind your friends and family, and we look forward to celebrating the Eucharist together as a whole community again .

Calling Catholic Lawyers

The Archdiocese of Toronto has spent a number of years creating a network of advisors who understand our faith and can assist other parishioners in their area of expertise. Due to an inevitable natural attrition, we need more lawyers who can provide their services in estate matters.

If you are a lawyer, we would like to hear from you! The Archdiocese of Toronto has spent a number of years creating a network of Catholic lawyers who understand our faith and can provide professional service related to Will preparation and writing to other Catholics in our archdiocese. Be a part of our network where you have the opportunity to integrate your spiritual and professional life. For further information, contact the Development Office at 416-934-3400 ext. 561/519 or development@archtoronto.org.

During the pandemic, we offered estate planning webinars to all our parishes. If everything goes well, we are planning to return to the in-person parish sessions in September. The goal is to help parishioners protect themselves and their loved ones by making a proper Will and estate plan that respects their wishes and our Catholic tradition. We also mention the importance of including the parish in estate planning and remembering it in our bequests. The importance of Catholic Cemeteries and burials (especially cremation) is also discussed.
