FROM THE DESK OF FR. GLASS:

De gustibus non est disputandum.

Particular law remaining in force, the use of Latin is to be preserved in the Latin [i.e., Roman Catholic] Rites. In Masses which are celebrated with the people, a suitable place may be allotted to their mother tongue. Nevertheless steps should be taken so that the faithful may also be able to say or to sing together in Latin those parts of the Ordinary of the Mass which pertain to them. — Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, Second Vatican Council.

The title of this column says: “There is no accounting for tastes.” Some people do not like the use of Latin in the celebration of the Eucharist. I can understand that. But it is a matter of taste, not of principle. There is a mistaken belief that the use of Latin is forbidden or discouraged — nothing is further from the truth.

Pope Benedict XVI, in Sacramentum Caritatis (2007), citing the Second Vatican Council (above), stated:

I ask that future priests, from their time in the seminary, receive the preparation needed to understand and to celebrate Mass in Latin, and also to use Latin texts and execute Gregorian chant; nor should we forget that the faithful can be taught to recite the more common prayers in Latin, and also to sing parts of the liturgy to Gregorian chant.

Furthermore, the current General Instruction of the Roman Missal specifically says:

It is desirable that the faithful know how to sing together at least some parts of the Ordinary of the Mass in Latin.

Moreover, the Latin chants are actually included in the English text of Missal. And as I have pointed out many times, the Kyrie is not Latin but Greek, and it is Greek for a reason — to connect us with the Greek liturgy celebrated in Jerusalem. The Kyrie, if it is to retain its meaning, must be in Greek and it must be sung! This is not a matter of taste; it is fundamental to its place in the liturgy.

The experts who set about the reform of the Liturgy after Vatican II determined that the Kyrie, Gloria, Sanctus, etc., could not be altered in any way because of the vast wealth of music associated with them, including the Gregorian Missa de Angelis, the glorious Missa Papae Marcelli of Palestrina, and Mozart’s Great Mass in C Minor. Vatican II declared that “the musical tradition of the universal Church is a treasure of inestimable value, greater even than that of any other art,” and that “the treasure of sacred music is to be preserved and fostered with great care.”

There is no need to apologize for the use of Latin in our celebration of the Eucharist. We are Latin Rite Catholics. Our liturgical language is Latin. But, be that as it may, some people simply do not like Latin.

POPE LEO DECLARES JUBILEE OF SAINT FRANCIS WITH PLENARY INDULGENCE

To mark the 800th anniversary of the death of Saint Francis of Assisi (October 3, 1226), the Church has proclaimed a Special Year of Saint Francis from January 10, 2026, to January 10, 2027. This Jubilee Year continues the grace of the recently concluded Ordinary Jubilee and invites all the faithful to live as pilgrims of hope, inspired by the life of Saint Francis—his humility, poverty, mercy, and love for Christ and peace.

During the Jubilee, the Apostolic Penitentiary, by the will of the Holy Father, grants a Plenary Indulgence under the usual conditions: sacramental confession, Holy Communion, and prayer for the intentions of the Holy Father. This indulgence may also be offered for the souls in Purgatory. The Plenary Indulgence is granted to members of the Franciscan Family and all the faithful who take part in the Jubilee by visiting a Franciscan church or any place connected to Saint Francis anywhere in the world, spending time in prayer or reflection, and praying for charity, harmony, and peace among peoples. The prayers conclude with the Our Father, the Creed, and invocations to the Blessed Virgin Mary, Saint Francis of Assisi, Saint Clare, and all the Saints of the Franciscan Family.

The elderly, the sick, those confined to their homes, and caregivers may also receive the Plenary Indulgence by spiritually joining the Jubilee celebrations and offering their prayers and sufferings to God, intending to fulfill the usual conditions when possible. This Jubilee of Saint Francis is a time of grace, calling all Christians to grow in holiness, mercy, and peace by following the Gospel way lived by the Poverello of Assisi.
